Terms and Conditions

Bookings

The booking is a legally binding contract and is made between Dragonfly Narrowboat Hire (the Company) and you (the Student) and is made under English Law.

Bookings for training courses will only be accepted when made upon the official booking form and accompanied by the appropriate course fee paid in full.

Cancellations

If you have to cancel your course booking please inform us immediately by telephone and in writing. We will then make every effort to fill the vacancy. If successful we will refund your course fees less £25 administration fee. If we cannot fill your vacancy then there is no refund.

We reserve the right to cancel any course for any reason. A full refund will be made and you will have no further claim on the Company.

We also reserve the right to cancel a course if the student has inappropriate or dangerous clothing or equipment, in this case there will be no refund. Kit lists will be sent to students prior to the course with the booking confirmation.

Insurance

The Company will not be held liable for personal accident, injury or death whilst on the course, howsoever caused, or loss or damage to personal property. Students are advised to take out their own personal and property insurance cover. The Company insures the boat and equipment against public liability risk.

Own Boat Tuition

A client using his/her own boat is responsible for it being fully insured, licensed and fit for the purpose. A written undertaking to this effect will be required.

The owner of the boat remains the "Captain" at all times and will be responsible for the craft and its crew even if under instruction.

The instructor (Company) will not be liable for any loss, damage or accident howsoever caused to any craft, property or person.
